Thai food, is rich in flavour, low in fat, and as our Healthy Eating Award indicates, good for you. We have created our menu to reflect our rich range of cooking styles - Thai dishes are not necessarily 'hot' and if you are a first timer, we can help guide you through your selection. All dishes selected below are 'Mild' unless indicated Spicy with an 'S'.

All our meats and vegetables are sourced from the region. Our herbs, spices and infusions, are authentic, and sourced direct from our suppliers in Thailand. If you have any special dietary needs, please ask when making your booking or complete the form on the back of this leaflet.

Please indicate next to each dish how many you require for your party - Ensure the N^o's ordered are the same as the numbers in your party!
